Call to Bar: 2002

Jeff was born and raised in Owen Sound, Ontario. He received his undergraduate degree in Psychology and his LL.B from the University of Western Ontario, where he volunteered at Community Legal Services as a caseworker. He was called to the Bar in 2002.

He worked with two well known local litigation firms for several years where he gained valuable litigation experience prior to joining Camporese Sullivan DiGregorio in 2009. His practice areas include insurance defence and personal injury litigation. Jeff has experience appearing before all levels of Court in Ontario, as well as various tribunals. He also has a background in commercial litigation and municipal law.

Jeff is a member of the Hamilton Medical-Legal Society, the Hamilton Lawyer's Club and the Hamilton Law Association.

Jeff is an annual speaker at the Hamilton Law Association's seminar for articling students and new lawyers on the topic of General Advocacy Tips. He has been an active member of local basketball and baseball leagues and enjoys spending time with his young and growing family.
